

Happy Jack Addresses the Boss.

STANFORD, KY.
HON. HENRY WATKINSON,
Louisville, Ky.

MY DEAR SIR:—One time when away from home I read a letter from you to a fellow up in New York who said, "I am a democrat." I liked it and wrote you a letter about it. You published your letter to that man again this spring and I think my letter to you will do for a re-printer too, and I make bold to publish it to you again and I want you to read it and not get mad at me like he did at you. I said:

STANFORD, KY., March 16, 1891.

HON. HENRY WATKINSON,
Louisville, Ky.

MY DEAR SIR:—Without the fear of being considered obtrusive, and with the love of God, the love of country and lots of love of democracy before my two eyes, I take pleasure in dropping you a few lines to let you hear of whom you may have never heard before.

I have been "away down south in Dixie" for some time selling mules—just got back—glad to find that my friends still keep their democracy unspotted and fear no evil. While there the electric spark announced the death of Gen. Sherman. Every day some one would point his finger to a lone chimney—"Mr. Jack, that is one of our many monuments to the memory of Gen. Sherman; his fire have never gone out—wont for a long time."

I read your letter to Gov. Hill. I like it, that's why I am writing this. Mr. Hill is a mighty good man. I believe he has the democratic heart of New York to-day, but Mr. Cleveland has the heart and hand of every other democratic community in this great country and we had better not make a mistake. Had we not better have all views of the democratic party to ally with Mr. Cleveland and then rely upon we ally?

What pleased me most was Mr. Cleveland's letter on the silver question. I am kinder "agin" about that, but, Lord, how brave! How candid! How honest! I am honest, too, but then I never had any money of any kind—except "Confederate"—and I don't know anything about it, while Mr. Cleveland may. I wish Mr. Cleveland had given the Internal Revenue Commissioner's place to some Kentuckian, but he couldn't give it to everybody and I don't intend to stay mad at him about it, even if I did get mad at the time. Why I had my mouth stuck out until you could have hung a hat on it for two or three years about that. I like Phil Thompson and Phil knows it and Phil likes me.

One or two things I am certain of. Mr. Cleveland has more good things in hand for the people and fewer bad than all the rest of us great and good men put together, including you and me and you know we are some if not more. Again: This is a mighty good time for all good democrats to make the very best use of all their good sense and a mighty bad time to make mistakes, and if Mr. Cleveland is not nominated, who ever is had better play a game of thimble with him and get those good things from his hand and "hold fast to what he gives him." I say this for Mr. Hill, or Mr. Gorman, or Mr. Anybody and they needn't think it worth nothing either. I am just one of the greasy multitude who do the voting, but have as much good sense as lots of men who go to Congress, but am far from being a statesman. I don't mean to tell you how great a man I am, but to call your attention to the great number of very small men in Congress.

As I said, I don't know anything about money. It has never bothered me and I don't intend that it shall in this shady evening of my happy life. Mr. Cleveland has the good of his country and countrymen at heart and I, for one, am anxious to take him with the anti college sin sticking to him—if it be a sin—remembering that for nearly 60 years I have been asking my fellows to forgive me for almost everything I have ever done and I am a big average on goodness and gumption if I do say so. Folks who have to be washed all over every night when they go to bed and again when they get up in the morning and then have some mud sticking to them still, can afford to put up with Mr. Cleveland's ruffled shirt bosom, if it be ruffled—don't you think so?

Now Mr. Watkinson, I wrote you this on the 16th of March, 1891, and I do think it reads better on this day of grace, June 17, 1892, than it did then. I want you to read it and publish it in the C. J. and I believe you and your readers will be glad to find that some old fellows who fight the clouds, sometimes think. You are a thoughtful man and I ask you not to forget the masses. Anyhow, don't go wrong at Chicago. This is not the time for personal resentment. Your good friend,

HAPPY JACK.

P. S. What does that hateful picture mean that some fellow put in a paper of you, Gov. McCreary and the Democratic Committee?

H. J.
Stanford, June 14.

—Senator Aldrich has been re-elected from Rhode Island.

DANVILLE.

—Mr. W. G. Dunlap broke ground for his new residence on Broadway Tuesday.

—Mrs. Emmy Meyer and children have returned from an absence of several months in Texas.

—Mr. C. N. Smith, after nine years' service, has resigned as common school trustee for the Danville district.

—The Danvilles and Harrodsburgs played base ball here Wednesday evening. The Danvilles won by 15 to 13.

—Bill Brye, a regular customer of the police court, was fined $10 and costs Wednesday for a breach of the peace.

—The investigations of the L. J. have failed to verify the rumor that Jim Rowley had been shot and wounded in the knolls near Parksville, Wednesday.

—A number of young people were handsomely entertained on Wednesday night by Miss Lizzie Bell at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bell.

—Boyle county farmers say that some of their wheat will be ready to cut Friday of this week. The greater portion will require several days more of sunshine.

—Mr. Hugh Craft returned to his home in McComet City, Miss., Tuesday. He was accompanied by Miss Florence Meyer, who goes to visit Mrs. Heber Craft.

—About 150 people attended the hop at Linnietta Springs Tuesday night. Guests were present from Louisville, Indianapolis, Lexington, Stanford, Danville, etc.

—Messrs. E. Flagg, W. K. Argo, Frank Christman, Morris Long, Augustus Rogers, J. M. Wallace will leave Saturday for a weeks fishing about 15 miles above the Falls of the Cumberland.

—Philip Foley has returned from St. Marys, where he has been attending college. Mr. A. Tribble and family have arrived from Junction City and now have charge of the Gilcher House.

—Monday night the store of George Stevenson, at Atoka, five miles west of here, burned accidentally. Loss $4,500; insured in the Ethna of Hartford for $1,000, in the Washington, of Providence, E. I., for $1,600.

—The case of Pomp Bates, convicted of the murder of George Wells and sentenced to the penitentiary for life in the last term of the Boyle circuit court, was reversed by the Court of Appeals, Tuesday, for the second time. Pomp got 21 years at his first trial.

—Clark Farris the driver of the Lancaster mail and passenger wagon, reports that Tuesday County Judge Robinson fined a white man named Turner $157.75 for selling whisky. Mr. Turner could not pay his little fine and went to jail. At $1 per day it will take him some little time to work her out.

—Capt. Thos. H. Bell, of this county, nominates Hon. Canale Matthews, of Indiana, for vice-president on the democratic ticket. Tom says that Mr. Matthews has always run ahead of his ticket in Indiana and for vice-president would carry his State with greater certainty than any other citizen thereof. It would be easy enough to substitute some other good man for Mr. Matthews as candidate for governor and put Mr. M. where he can do more good. Mr. Bell's candidate is well remembered in Danville, having graduated from Centre College in 1867.

The many reports from the patients under Dr. Appleman's care prove conclusively that he is a skilled specialist and thoroughly understands his business. He names some of the diseases he has cured in and around our city: Conjunctivitis, granulated sore eyes, ulcerated cornea, strabismus, (cross eyes) catarh, polypos of nose, otitis media (suppurative discharge of ear) deafness, ringing noises in ears, bronchitis, gastritis, (dyspepsia) neuralgia of stomach and bowels, congestion of the liver and kidneys, constipation, haemorrhoids (piles), disuria, spermatorrhoea, stricture, varicocele, neuritis and blood troubles. These diseases have been positively cured and cases discharged. If you are suffering from any chronic trouble consult the doctor on his visit here. His next visit will be Tuesday, June 21 at Myers House.

A HUNDRED YEARS TO COME.

From Dear Kate's Scrap-Book.

O where will be the birds that sing,

A hundred years to come?

The flowers that now in beauty spring,

A hundred years to come?

The rosy lip, the lofty brow,

The heart that beats so gently now?

O where will be the beaming eyes,

Joy's pleasant smile and sorrow's sigh,

A hundred years to come?

Who'll press for gold the crowded street,

A hundred years to come?

Who'll tread your church with willing feet,

A hundred years to come?

Pale, trembling age and fiery youth,

And childhood with its brow of truth,

The rich and poor on land and sea,

Where will the mighty millions be,

A hundred years to come?

We all within our graves will sleep,

A hundred years to come!

No living soul for us shall weep,

A hundred years to come!

But other men our lands will till,

And others than our streets will fill,

While other birds will sing as gay,

As bright the sunshine as to-day,

A hundred years to come!

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Born, to the wife of David Henderson, a boy.

—Lucie Jimmy McIntire, who is 91 years old, was found the other day following the plow with as much vigor as a youth of 16.

—The P. E. C. C. composed of four blind persons, gave quite an interesting concert at the court-house on Monday night, which was highly enjoyed by a large crowd.

—The Ladies' Aid Society elected Mrs. J. W. Nesbitt president at their last meeting. They deserve especial praise for their untiring efforts to improve the building of the Christian church.

—Miss Bessie Adams gave a lawn party Wednesday evening at the home of Willis Adams. Their lovely yard was brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns and beautifully supplied with chairs for the different sets of tables. Ice was served and after a general good time the crowd dispersed, feeling much better and happier for the sweet repast of the evening.

—Dr. J. M. Williams attended the hop given at your town Friday evening and reports a delightful time. Mr. Frank Brinkley, of Louisville, spent Sunday and Monday with relatives here. A. J. Fish and T. T. Wallace, the expert fishermen, went down to Rockcastle river last week and returned heavily laden.

Mr. E. T. Fish has changed houses and is now with the well known establishment of Robinson, Pettit & Co., Louisville. John Welch, with W. H. Thomas & Son, Louisville, is expected here in a few days to visit homefolks. C. C. Williams was in Lebanon last week on legal business. W. S. Jackson, of the L. & N., stopped at the Newcomb House Saturday.

Mrs. S. E. Brooks and son, Mrs. Mary Carson and son, all of Crab Orchard, are attending the bedside of "Aunt Pop" Proctor, who continues quite ill.

Mrs. Dr. Will Brown, of Parksville, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Judge McCare. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCoy spent Sunday in the country with Mrs. Will Fish. Miss Nell Johnson, of Lancaster, sister of our accomplished music teacher Mrs. Belle Burnside, is visiting Mrs. Lila Brown. Miss Ray Jones, of Middleboro, is stopping with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams. Mrs. M. C. Williams and children, after several weeks' sojourn in Russellville, have returned home. Misses Boggs and Turley, of Richmond, are at Mrs. Will J. Sparks. Misses Moore, of Williamsburg, will be here next week visiting Miss Leona McClure. Mr. T. C. Peake, of Coon Hollow, was with his friend, Tom Heston, Sunday.

—Mrs. Rebecca Tyler, mother of the mayor, of Louisville, is dead.

—Gold to the amount of $2,500,000 was shipped from New York to Europe.

—George Jamison, of New Albany, drank a quart of whisky and then laid down and died.

—Eli T. Stockhouse, a famous alliance congressman from South Carolina died suddenly at Washington.

—Eight lives were lost by the Chicago tornado, instead of two, as first reported, and 15 persons were killed.

—The little daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney Shuck was kicked to death by a horse at Lebanon.

—E. L. Anthony has been elected to succeed Senator Roger Q. Mills in the House from the 9th Texas district.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

—The British steamer laden with petroleum was struck by lightning, causing an explosion and the loss of 18 lives.

—Fire on the water front at Baltimore destroyed shipping and other property to the value of a million of dollars. A Louisville firm lost 1,000 barrels of whisky.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Miss Alice Hulse entertained her young friends Tuesday evening.

—H. M. Ballou has opened a stock of groceries in the Thompson building on Richmond street.

—Rev. George O. Barnes and family will arrive to-day and begin a series of meetings at the court-house this evening.

—A grain elevator will soon be erected near the R. C. depot. It will be managed by Mr. H. A. B. Marksbury and the capacity will be 30,000 bushels.

—The managers of the Garrard County Fair have shown their good judgment by engaging Henry Saxton's excellent band of Lexington to furnish the music.

—Master Commissioner R. A. Burnside sold the Wade H. Walker lands, lying in upper Garrard, Wednesday. All the property brought good prices and was bought by the heirs.

—The series of meetings conducted by Tom C. Bash closed Wednesday evening. A large crowd and marked attention was given him. He will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—B. F. Shavin, chairman of the democratic committee, has issued a call for a convention to be held next Saturday afternoon at the court-house to select delegates from Garrard to the convention to be held at Nicholasville, July 9th.

—The Keeley Institute at Crab Orchard is doing a noble work in the interest of humanity. The officers in charge are thoroughly competent and are performing their duties to the entire satisfaction of all who visit the institute for medical treatment.

—It is reported that a number of colored men have been arrested for a violation of the local option laws. They reside in what is known as "Battle Row" which is said to be a favorite resort for both white and black, who are addicted to the excessive use of liquor.

—Mrs. Thos. Boyd, of Richmond, is visiting at her father's, Mr. G. L. Bettis, San Joseph, of Cincinnati, was here this week. Prof. Gordon, of Garrard College, has gone to Tennessee in the interest of his school. Miss Gracie Kinnaird, who has been attending school at Oxford, Ohio, has returned home. Lewis Walker has returned from Central University. Mrs. E. D. Potts, of Lexington, is visiting the family of Mr. H. C. Jennings. Mr. Jim Leavelle, of New Orleans, is visiting Mr. S. T. Leavelle. Miss Nellie Johns on is visiting in Mt. Vernon.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to befriend anyone to the full extent of his ability. That death was only laying down to sleep to awake in a better land. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his father by Rev. J. B. Turey, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Andrew Stout, of the Baptist church; and Eld. J. C. Frank, of the Christian church, after which he was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery beneath a forest of beautiful flowers furnished by loving friends.

—Your Lancaster correspondent tenders his grateful acknowledgment of the kind reference of the INTERIOR to the death of his only brother. He has the consolation of knowing that he died doing his duty and in the enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of those under whom he served as well as of all who knew him. He was the friend of everybody and everybody was his friend. He said he was not afraid to die for he had never harmed anyone and that he had never failed to

W. P. WALTON.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

SIX PAGES.
On Fridays.

ARKANSAS elected Cleveland delegates to Chicago, but did not instruct them. The convention also nominated W. P. Fishback for governor. If the desire to have Cleveland nominated is "craze," as Henri Watterson terms it, the people of the United States are the craziest lot ever known. It is an uprising for honest and economic government such as was never known. If the majority rule prevailed in the democratic as in the republican conventions, Mr. Cleveland would be nominated on the first ballot, if in fact he does not get the necessary two thirds vote even on that.

ILLINOIS seems to have a surplus of presidential timber. Many democrats recognizing that he has never met defeat in his State are calling fondly for Gen. Schofield for president, while Morrison, Palmer, Fuller and others have large followings. An attempt will be made by his enemies to prevent the nomination of Mr. Cleveland on the first ballot by complimenting favorite sons, but it begins to look like even that game will not succeed. The people want Grover.

EDITOR FINLEY, of the Louisville Post, who attended the republican convention, denies most emphatically that oft repeated story that Col. W. O. Bradley was not strong in his support of Harrison. Any body who knows the colored could have given the lie to the statement, but it is well enough for Judge Finley to emphasize the absurdity of the story. Col. Bradley has been unwavering in his support of Harrison.

THE report comes from New York that the Tammany leaders will go to Cleveland, if they find after one ballot that he is the choice of the convention. If this be true, and they are in earnest, Tammany will cast its vote for the ex-president, but it is a curious fact that every presidential candidate Tammany has supported for years has been defeated.

JERRY SIMPSON, erstwhile known as the reckless statesman, was nominated for Congress in the 7th Kansas district by a very enthusiastic convention and it is believed that the democrats will endorse the action. Jerry is an Alliance man and therefore preferable to a republican as he frequently votes with the democrats.

THE delegates are arriving at Chicago and they are generally for Cleveland. The prediction is made that there will be no serious opposition to him. Cleveland with Boies, Gray, Senefield or Morrison would make a team that would make the Harrison and Reid entry a very tame one.

EMMETT LOGAN has been before the smelling committee of the Legislature, but it doesn't know any more now "who writ that measly piece" in the Times about it than before. The long locust from Bull Skin can't be bulldozed by any such tea party as that at Frankfort.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—The subject of removing the capitol has again sprung up in the legislature.
—The election bill was passed by the State Senate as it came from the House.
—The governor has signed the bill to prevent "ringing" at country fairs and on other race tracks.
—Col. Adams introduced a petition from citizens of Casey asking the repeal of the local option law.
—Both Houses have passed the cumbersome election bill and the governor's signature will make it the law.
—A bill to abolish the insurance bureau has been introduced in the House. It is claimed that it costs $30,000 a year and does not render an equivalent for value received.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Two negroes were burned to death in Anderson county.
—California has been shaken up by earthquakes some more.
—The National Convention of freight agents is in session in Louisville.
—Col. Dudley M. Hayden, a prominent citizen of Louisville, is dead.
—Eighteen persons were prostrated by heat in New York City, Monday, and four died.
—Galva, Ill., was swept by a cyclone and several persons are reported to have been killed.
—At Covington, Miss Minnie McCue, a woman of unsound mind, starved herself to death.
—Theodore Fogle is in jail at Louisville for killing his mother-in-law in Bullitt county.

—The contract to build a new jail at Georgetown was awarded a St. Louis firm at $11,300.

—By the giving away of the bridge between Covington and Newport, 23 persons were killed.

—A bill has been passed to prevent cars pulled by only one horse to run in Washington City.

—The Ohio democracy commended Grover Cleveland and sent a delegation strongly for him.

—While out swimming Sunday, John Whitehouse, a popular young man of Hawesville was drowned.

—The Manufacturer's Building at the World's Fair grounds was damaged to the extent of $6,000 by a storm.

—Hon. Herschel Goodnight was re-nominated for Congress for the Third district by acclamation at Glasgow.

—Of six delegates elected by district meetings in Ohio, two are for Cleveland, two for Hill and the others uncommitted.

—Frank Adams, of Brownsville, Ind., was killed by his friend and neighbor, Benjamin Wing. The trouble arose over Adams' removing a fence.

—At the meeting of the representatives of the National league base ball clubs in New York, it was decided to make the team limit 13 men after July 2.

—The pension bill, as reported to the Senate is increased $11,012,281 over the amount appropriated by the House and exceeds the bill of last year by $11,125,565.

—The court of Appeals has decided that $500 fine and disfranchisement are not too much punishment for a person convicted of running a gambling establishment.

—At Orland, Pa., an express train collided with a shifting engine on the North Pennsylvania road. One trainman was killed, two others scalded and nine passengers hurt.

—A freight train on the K. C. G. & L., went through a trestle near Cumberland Gap, demolishing the train and trestle, killing two men, wounding four and producing a pecuniary loss of $100,000.

—Kentucky's timber of the nine varieties to be represented at the World's Fair is worth in good hard money $400,000,000, an amount equal to four fifths of the entire taxable property of the State.

—The daily mortality from cholera at Mesheda, Persia, is now 400. The strictest sanitary regulations have been established and the Anceer threatens to behead anyone who does not comply with them.

—The Court of Appeals decided in the case of Harbor, sentenced to the penitentiary for one year and to pay a fine of $500 for keeping a gambling house at Richmond, that the law is good and he must pay up.

—At Arkansas City, Kansas, J. A. McCormack found D. C. Jones in bed with his wife. He fired one shot at Jones and then began to curse him. Both parties began firing and as a consequence both are now dead.

—A tornado struck Chicago, badly damaging the democratic wigwag and several other buildings. Two persons are known to have been killed, five or six fatally injured and it is feared that three men were drowned on Lake Michigan.

—Fourteen of the crew of the United States cruiser, Boston, were killed by an explosion in the shell house of the magazine at the Mare Island navy yard. The men were engaged in preparing shells for the war ship at the time of the accident.

—At Imperial, Pa., Mrs. Jules Leroy attempted to hurry breakfast by pouring coal oil on the fire which she was starting. An explosion followed in which she was badly burned. Two of her children were also burned, one dying from the effects.

—The trial has opened at St. Polten, Austria, of a woman accused of levying blackmail on 16 residents of the town, whom she charged with having immoral relations with her daughter, aged 13 years. Eleven divorce cases have already risen out of the proceedings.

—The British steamer, Petrolia, which left Philadelphia May 26 with a full cargo of crude petroleum, was struck by lightning near the harbor of Blaye, in France. The steamer exploded and was completely destroyed by fire with several smaller crafts. Eighteen lives were lost.

—The parish church at Melias, Spain, was struck by lightning, 10 worshippers being instantly killed and 28 badly injured. At Mucientes, also in Spain, the parish church was struck and five persons were killed, while 10 were seriously injured. Great damage was done by the storm throughout the kingdom.

—The noted case against Stephen A. Ryan, the Atlanta merchant, who has been in jail since November for failure to turn over money that the court ordered him to do after his failure, has been compromised by the court permitting the secured and unsecured creditors to divide the $175,000 between them. Ryan is still in jail however.

—The State Senate declined to accept the suggestion of the Revisory Commission separating the Insurance Department from the Auditor's Department and giving the governor the appointment of the commissioner. The salary of the commissioner, paid by the insurance companies, was reduced from $4,000 to $2,500, and that of his chief deputy from $2,000 to $1,500.

—Preaching by Rev. B. Helm at Mt. Xenia Sunday at 3 p. m. and Rowland at 8 p. m. same evening.

—About 500 members, nearly the entire congregation, of St. Stanislaus church in Cleveland, Ohio, have been excommunicated by Bishop Horstmann, until they shall make public confession of repentance for engaging in a factional quarrel that resulted in a riot.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—John Hill bought of Ben Johnson 16 head of 3 year old cattle at 2 1/2c.

—J. B. Gentry's mare, Mattie Kenney, was left at the post Monday at Latonia and thus a good mare was knocked out of a chance to win a victory.

—William Moreland bought of Will Tucker a lot of yearling steers at $25; of B. F. Robinson 215 lambs at 50; of D. N. Prewitt a lot of same at same price.

—J. E. Carson bought of Dr. Steele Bailey, for S. H. Godman, of Indiana, 10 Jersey heifers. The price paid is private, but it was a very fancy one.

—The sod and grasses for the Kentucky exhibit at the World's Fair are to be taken from those localities in the State, famous in history as the home of or birthplace of Lincoln, Clay, Gov. Shelby, Jefferson Davis and others.

—B. F. Robinson bought of John Lynn 60 lambs averaging 86 pounds with only two lambs out; Joshua Jones 40 that averaged 72 pounds; Mrs. Tucker 30 lambs averaging 71 pounds, also lot of butcher cattle from Wood & Baker, 1,150 at 2.55.

—A gray horse 42 years of age is owned by John McCarthy, of Chicago. The old fellow's teeth were recently operated on by the veterinary dentist, Geo. R. Logan, who says the ancient equine is able to eat hard food as well as ever. Such cases are extremely rare.

HUBBLE.

—A girl at Wesley Sutton's.

—John McCarley has taken a relapse of rheumatism.

—Will Swope, of McCreary has another fine boy at his house.

—People think the wheat crop fair in this locality and little more smut discovered than usual.

—Mr. J. E. Bruce was in our section last week buying butcher stuff for his mountain trade at 2 1/2c.

—Mrs. S. Dunbar has been right sick for a few days. Lesley Carter is thought to be improving and it is to be hoped he will recover.

—While out driving Sunday evening Mr. Loyd Bourne and Miss Annie Underwood were thrown from their buggy but both escaped without serious injury.

—C. P. Underwood has become a fine surgeon. Last week having a calf to choke on an apple, he tried to alleviate the animal by pressing it down with his buggy whip, which failed. He next took the ax and hammer and placing the ax below the apple struck it with the hammer, bursting it so as to allow the little sufferer to swallow it, at once relieving it.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

ONE of our progressive horticulturists advises fruit growers to dip their trees, root and branch, in disinfecting liquids before planting them. If this were universally done he claims that the ravages of many kinds of diseases and insects would be much reduced.

SOME farmers change their methods of work and their crops too often. It takes some time to become thoroughly acquainted with the growing of a certain crop on each particular farm, and to discard it as soon as this information has been obtained is to lose the benefit of the past experience.

A VARIETY of stock calls for a variety of food. Feeding corn exclusively to all classes of stock is extravagant, even when corn is cheap, as it may not satisfy the requirements of the animals. The best results are obtained from a variety of food, as it supplies all necessities, and, as a consequence, cheapens the cost.

FOR the information of those who have never made a strawberry bed it may be mentioned that no old plants should be set out. Select young plants, which may be known by their white roots. Old plants have dark roots. Young plants will grow singly and throw out runners later on, completely matting the rows.

Tape Worm in Sheep.

THE disease in sheep which is marked by a rigidity of the muscles of the neck, by which the head is drawn back to the shoulder, and by the eyes glaring, giddiness and general stiffness of the limbs, is due to the presence of the larvae of tape worms in the brain. It is known among shepherds as "rigid," or "turn-side," from some of the sheep turning around in a circle, the neck being bent stiffly in one direction, until they die. This disease is described in Stewart Shepherd's Manual and its proper treatment explained. It is difficult to treat, but more easy to prevent. The sheep contract the disease by swallowing the eggs of tape worms, which are dropped by dogs upon the grass; the immature worms find their way to the brain, where they form cysts, or bladders, in which the young worms exist. These press upon the brain and produce the general nervous paralysis. When the sheep die the dogs eat them and thus become infested again with the parasites, which mature in the dogs' intestines. The remedy is obvious.—Farmer's Voice

DR. D. E. PROCTOR,
SHELTON HOUSE.

Rowland, : : Kentucky.
Office hours 7 to 9 a. m. and 5 to 9 p. m.
30-224

OUT

Of Bargains, we never are, as our buyer is continually shipping us immense quantities of goods which he bought at a low price and we are therefore enabled to offer extra inducements.

OF

SIGHT

Course it will to your interest to buy where your money will go the furthest By examining the bargains which we will mention below you will see such a

To interest you as to make you buy.

Men's all wool Suits. Frick's Light Colors.....	$ 8 00
Men's extra fine wool Suits, Sack and Frock.....	$10 50
Men's Grey Cheviot Suits.....	$ 4 75
Boys' fine suit, light colors, all wool.....	$ 6 75
Boys' Checked Cheviot Suits.....	$ 4 00
Child's Knee Pants Suits, all wool, Light Colors.....	$ 4 95
Child's Cassimere Suits, Dark Shades.....	$ 3 00
Child's Cloth Suits.....	$ 1 50

ANOTHER LOT OF STRAW HATS NOW IN

"Every one a Bargain."

GENT'S FANCY VESTS, DOUBLE BREAST'D ~ ~ $1.50

"The Latest Novelty."

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Death is at all times sad, but when it comes to the young it is exceedingly so. When the writer last saw Miss Eliza Kennedy she was the picture of health and happiness, but now all that was mortal is no more. Handsome, accomplished, popular and friendly, Miss Eliza will be missed by her large circle of friends and it will be with a deep pang of grief that this announcement of her death is read. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kennedy and was a lovely girl in every particular; the pride of her parents; the joy of her home. Miss Kennedy was in her 23d year and was the eldest of a most happy family. The cause of her death was heart trouble and her illness was of short duration. The funeral services by Rev. W. W. Bruce took place at the residence at 3:30 yesterday afternoon after which a large number of friends accompanied the remains to the Hanstonville cemetery where they were laid to rest.

To Delinquents.

It is against our custom and contrary to our desire to ask our patrons for money through the paper, but remittances are so slow and our need of money so great that we are forced to insist that everyone who owes us will settle at once. If your label does not read 14 June 92 you are in arrears and should send us the amount due to date with a year's pay in advance. This means you and everyone in arrears. We need the money.

CHATS ABOUT MEN.

Rev. O. M. Fisher, of Walpole, N. H., who received by will the whole estate of Miss Agnes Peabody, of Cambridge, has waived his claim for $20,000.

It is related that when Ben Butler, in the days of his youth, was school teacher in a Maine village his pet "scurry word" was, "By the great Gumpdamagog!"

Jerry Simpson has a small son who has to stand no end of teasing in his school in Washington, where the boys call him "Hayseed." He says, though, that he doesn't mind it a bit.

The original manuscript of the "Book of Mormon" is now in one of the banks at Richmond, Ray county, Mo., in custody of J. D. Whitner, a straight and apparently non-polygamous Mormon.

The Alfred prize, offered by the Virginia Military Institute for the best essay on Thomas Jefferson, was won by Archibald Stuart, a nephew of the Confederate cavalry leader, General J. E. B. Stuart.

Senator Stanford contemplates giving his Nob Hill residence in San Francisco to the state to be converted into a free public library, while his country home near Palo Alto is to become the residence of the president of the Stanford university.

Mr. Paul Du Chailu, the pioneer African traveler, was born in Louisiana; his father was a trader in the French colony of Gambia, on the west African coast. Young Du Chailu went there as a child and picked up the language and studied the birds and beasts.

Von Moltke had a great antipathy to the wearing of fine apparel. It is related that once, when he attended a meeting of the Order of St. John, as the servant helped him off with his overcoat he was discovered to be in his shirt sleeves. His dress coat hung forgotten in his bedroom.

The new Chilean minister, Albert Blest Gana, is not a stranger in Washington. He represented Chili in this country in 1870. From Washington he was transferred to Paris, where he served as minister to France for seventeen years. Senor Gana is about fifty years of age.

THE WILLARD.

(Late Alexander's Hotel.)

THOROUGHLY : RENOVATED : AND : IMPROVED.
Rates $2.50 Per Day.

Cor. Jefferson, Center and Green Streets, opposite the Court-House, Louisville, Ky.

A. W. Jones, J. J. Sullivan,
J. J. Marshall, clerks.

W. R. LOGAN,
Manager.

The Bottom Knocked Out

Fifty pairs Ladies' Custom Made

Shoes

Broken sizes, all of the best makes, reduced from $3.50 per pair to $1.75.

Sateens reduced from 15 1/2c per yard to 10c. Dress Chambray reduced from 15c yard to 10c. 36-inch Cotton Serge from 16 1/2c yard to 10c.

These goods must go in the next 30 days, so call at once and secure your share of the bargains.

W. E. PERKINS, Crab Orchard.

A. R. PENNY,

DRUGGIST AND JEWELER,

During the year 1892 I hand a full and complete shall keep constantly on stock of:

Drugs and
Paints, Oils,
& Stationery.

Toilet Articles
Glass, Books,

.....My stock of

WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY

Is larger and better selected than ever and I assure my customers of prompt service, low charges and courteous treatment; Mr. THOMAS DALTON in charge.

A. R. PENNY.

SPRING CLOTHING!

OUR STOCK IS COMPLETE

And we can show as nice an assortment as the people have Ever Seen in Stanford.

All Styles and Colors of Cassimeres, Worstedes and Home-Spuns.

Please Examine and Price Them.

M'ROBERTS & HIGGINS.

W. P. WALTON.

American Poultry Association's Standard of Weights for Each Breed.

The American Poultry Association, which is composed of breeders from nearly every state in the Union, and which in its annual conventions legislates for the interests of its members, has not only fixed a scale of points which describes all the breeds, but also attaches to each breed a certain minimum weight. This weight may be exceeded, but may not be less than the weight fixed for the breed is severely cut off for the defect. It may be interesting to some of our readers to know how much each cock, hen, cockerel and pullet should weigh. A cock and hen are birds over one year old. A cockerel and pullet are birds under that age.

Bronze and Narragansett turkeys should weigh as follows: Cock, 22 pounds; hen, 22 pounds; cockerel, 22 pounds; pullet, 14 pounds. Buff, slate and black turkeys—cock, 27 pounds; cockerel, 18; hen, 18; pullet, 12. White turkeys—cock, 26 pounds; hen, 16; cockerel, 16; pullet, 10.

Of geese there are seven varieties. The Toulouse and Embden weigh as follows: Gander, 25 pounds; goose, 23; young gander, 20; young goose, 18. The African gander weighs 30 pounds; the goose, 18; young gander, 16; and young goose, 14. The brown and white China and the Canada geese are about four pounds less than the African, and the Egyptian about four pounds less than the Canada.

The largest ducks are the colored and white Muscovy. The drake weighs 10 pounds, the duck 8, young drake 9 and young duck 7. Next come the Rouen and Aylesbury ducks, the drake weighing 9 pounds, the duck 8, the young drake 8 and young duck 7. The Pekin and Cayuga breeds are a pound less, and the white crested ducks are a pound less than the Pekins.

Among chickens the Light Brahma comes first, the cock weighing 12 pounds; hen, 9½; cockerel, 10, and pullet, 8. All the Cochins and the dark Brahmas weigh alike, the cock being 11 pounds; hen, 8½; cockerel, 9, and pullet, 7. The Plymouth Rock cock weighs 9½ pounds; cockerel, 8; hen, 7½, and pullet, 6½. Wyandotte cocks weigh 8½ pounds; cockerel, 7½; hens, 6½, and pullets, 5½. Minorca cocks weigh 8 pounds; cockerel, 6½; hens, 6, and pullets, 5½. Java cocks weigh 10 pounds; cockerels, 8½; hens, 8, and pullets, 6½. Langshan cocks weigh 9½ pounds; cockerels, 8; hens, 7, and pullets, 6. A colored Dorking cock weighs 9½ pounds; cockerel, 8; hen, 7½, and pullet, 6. The silver gray Dorking is about a pound less, and the white Dorking about half a pound less than the silver gray.

Leghorns, Hamburgs, Black Spanish and the ornamental breeds have no weight fixed. A Red Cap cock weighs 7½ pounds and a hen a pound less. The French breeds weigh as follows: La Fleche cock, 8½ pounds; Crevetteur cock, 8 pounds; Houdan cock, 7 pounds, the hens weighing about a pound less.

Bantams are the opposite in weights, the smaller the bird the more valuable. There are also disqualifying weights, which are much lower for all the breeds, and which are intended to prevent very small specimens from being exhibited at the shows at any time.—New Hampshire Mirror.

Fowls in and Thieves Out.
This little building was made strong and fitted to keep fowls in and thieves or marauders out. It is 12 feet long, 6 feet wide, 7 feet high on the front and 5½ on the rear. It has two sashes swung on the inside and five iron rods sunk two inches in oak and fastened on the outside.

POULTRY HOUSE.
side of the windows with wire 3-inch screws. The roof is of planed boards, with a groove worked on both sides of the joint and a strip nailed on the top of the joint, also grooved, which makes it perfectly dry.

The door is in the front between the windows. The outlets for the chickens are in the ends and have a slide door to close them up. I have my henhouse divided into two parts by a lath partition. The door works from right to left, so that when I go into one part the door closes up the other half. The strips over the joints on the outside are two inches wide and beveled off on the edges, and fit into the piece at the top of the coop and the bottom, forming panels.—H. C. Schenck in Poultry World.

Good Horses.

We have had much to say about the value of good coach horses, but we have never said all that the facts would justify. There are today hundreds of people in any of our large cities searching for safe and stylish carriage horses. Such animals are as hard to get, for anything like a fair price, as good Shetland ponies. In fact these two classes of horses just now seem worth more per pound than any others. The cost of raising a pound of horse is not much more than that of raising a pound of steer, and there is little difference between the cost of a pound of car horse and a pound of carriage horse. One may sell at fourteen cents a pound and the other at thirty-five cents. A difference of twenty-one cents a pound is worth considering.

We understand that some parties are trying to sell grade horses with more or less Percheron blood in them for full blood Percheron coaches. Don't patronize such a house if you can help it. The mares found in any ordinary neighborhood are of all "sorts and colors." To have any approach to uniformity in color the stallion must be as well bred as possible.—Rural New Yorker.

HINTS FOR SHEEP BREEDERS.

Food and Treatment That Will Bring in the Heaviest Returns.

Old, experienced flockmasters are usually guided by certain golden maxims, one being that variety in the feeding of sheep is indispensable. Many of our most successful sheep raisers are those who adopt the largest series of fodder crops, not because seasons cause one kind to answer when another fails, but owing to sheep having their likes and dislikes no less than human beings.

Instead of depending wholly on hay, turnip or silage, as some do, the sagacious and experienced flockmasters add to that cabbage, kohlrabi, thousand headed kale, rape, vetches or whatever is suited to the climate and location. There are many sheep growing districts in America where one and all of these fodder plants can be grown to the greatest advantage, but farmers are slow in leaving the old ruts. Rape can be cultivated almost anywhere, and I wonder flockmasters can resist the temptation of giving it a trial.

Hurry up, shepherds, and keep pace with the times, and provide for those charming Downs that you are importing and lavishing so much money on. Your stubbles will soon be bare, so in with the plows and on with the rape seed, and you will reap a golden harvest through your sheep, that you never dreamed of. The sheep and hogs I kept per acre on rape in Oregon seem sometimes to me incredible. What wool the sheep produced, and what lambs were to be found in that forest of foliage!

Closely following is now very commonly practiced among the leading flockmasters in Britain. The advantages of close folding when judiciously practiced are very great. It is most commonly practiced in those districts where Down sheep are kept, and where the arable land is adapted to the growth of fodder or catch crops. I mean by catch crops, rape seed, mustard, winter vetches, winter barley, rye, etc. Grow these instead of fallowing or allowing the ground to lie idle. Immediately after the crop is removed plow your land and sow one or all of these seeds and you will not only have abundant feed for all varieties of stock as well as for sheep, but you will at the same time be greatly enriching your land. The system is extensively followed out in England; why not in America?

Change of feed is one of the great secrets of successful sheep farming. When in Britain last fall I observed that among the celebrated breeders sheep were being constantly, almost daily, removed from pasture to pasture, always getting fresh keep and never allowed to remain in one inclosure till they had to be removed, which is the worst of all management. Others, again, were allowed only as much space on grass or rape, etc., as they could eat off clean, being given a fresh patch daily, simply by advancing the hurdles or wire netting. In this manner the land behind them is manured and nothing wasted. Wherever this pursuit is carried out at least one change is made in the sheep pasture every day by taking them from their ordinary pastures to rape or vetches, then again returning them to the permanent pasture for the night.

We all know that careful shepherding, plenty of change, liberal allowance of concentrated foods and a good breed to work upon are the chief points required in order to secure success. I am a great advocate for feeding young sheep on concentrated foods. When oilcakes with a good percentage of oil are used in conjunction with some kind of meal there is room both for profit in the animal's feed and also the improvement of the land upon which the cake and corn is consumed. So important is this subject of improvement of land by means of sheep feeding that it occupies a very prominent place in sheep management.

You must feed your sheep from the day the lambs can crunch cake and corn, and never forget "it is what goes in at the month that makes them." The old theory that prime mutton can only be had from 3 and 4-year-old wethers has been exploded. Indeed 2-year-old wethers are now becoming rare. Nothing is more certain than that the age at which sheep can be fattened is being constantly lessened. It is thoroughly ascertained that a sheep from its birth till 1 year old makes as much flesh as one double that age, provided the sheep be fed carefully, plentifully and methodically, and that there shall be no short commons in their rations.

Remember the ewe as well as the lamb requires to have abundant feed and fresh pasture all through the nursing season. The maternal strains are very heavy, especially where the ewe is nursing doubles. The drain of a healthy and rapidly growing lamb upon the ewe is so great that in many cases it entirely checks the growth of the wool.—William Watson in Breeder's Gazette.

Live Stock Points.

Common horses will become more and more a drug on the market as fast as the cities begin to use electricity and cables instead of horse traction for street cars. This they are doing rapidly. Within a few months 7,000 horses will be for sale from the street car stables of New York city alone.

Mr. Beale, American minister to Persia, has sent to the agricultural department at Washington sixteen valuable Astrakhan sheep. It will be worth while to see how they thrive in this country. Perhaps we may at length beat the world in the production of fine wool.

The poultry and dairy shows that have been held in connection with the fat stock and horse shows at Chicago will be omitted this year. It is a pity. There ought to be a dairy show, and a great one, in every state in the Union each year.

Be sure and have green stuff for the poultry all the summer through, if you have them yarded. Either rye, oats or grass will make a good feed, and careful poultrymen will plant one or all of these in plenty in good season to come in at the right time.

LIVE STOCK

SHEEP PORTRAITS.

Varieties of Sheep Differ as Widely as Races of Men.

Here are two pictures of breeds of sheep which are strikingly different. The first illustration shows a Shropshire ram that took first prize at the Royal Society exhibition of 1891. The Shropshire finds much favor in the western sheep districts at present because of its hardiness. In Canada it is also popular. The Shropshire's best point is probably that it yields a large quantity of good mutton. But its woolly merits are worth counting on as well. The average weight of a fleece of the improved Shropshire is seven pounds of long, not overfine wool, which pays very well.

ENGLISH PRIZE SHROPSHIRE.

In the second picture is a unique animal of the sheep family.

It is an illustration of a black faced mountain ram of a breed akin to the black faced Scotch sheep, the oldest breed in Scotland. The Scotch sheep are the hardest domestic breed in the world, also the most intelligent and cunning. The phrase, "as silly as a sheep," does not apply to them. Their mutton is of choice flavor, and they can take care of themselves almost equal to a Texas steer. The fleece, while very long, is light in weight and rather coarse in texture.

BLACK FACED MOUNTAIN RAM.

Breeding from Crippled Mares.

In answer to a question from The Rural New Yorker on this subject J. S. Crosby writes from Greenfield, Mich.:

In my lumbering operations in this state I find it quite difficult to get such draft horses as I need. We imported from Canada and sent directly to the woods about forty head of grade mares, Shires and Clydes. They had been bred in Canada and were half, three-quarter and seven-eighth bloods, etc. All purchased and brought here were as good specimens as we could find in Canada, and cost from $175 to $210 per head there. We put them in the woods at work at the heavy business of lumbering.

When we have used them two or three years, if they become injured or debilitated, we send them to our farm and put them on grass until they are in perfect health, although not sufficiently strong for the heavy work in the woods. They are then bred to the stallion and used about the farm for light work until about four months before foaling time, when they are again turned loose and allowed to run until they drop their foals. They require no treatment except a run at the grass and a little condition powder as a tonic.

We have found that it is almost impossible to get a mare with the leaves in foal. If a mare is injured in the legs or if she has flesh wounds or other injuries that prevent her from doing hard work, she may be in just as good a shape to breed as though she did not have these wounds or injuries. It is our experience that one seldom sees on the colts from perfectly sound and strongly bred stallions from the Shire or Clyde breeds any blemishes like sidebones, spavins or other troubles that cause lameness. We have never had any unsatisfactory colts from the above mentioned treatment of the breeding question. One is perfectly safe in breeding mares to perfectly sound stallions with properly shaped feet and leg bones. Of course the mares must not have blemishes from such causes as ringbone, sidebone, spavins or other like blemishes and we would never advise breeding a mare that has the leaves.

She Can Farm.

Connecticut farmers, who continually bemoan that the old state is used up for farming, may learn something to their advantage by consulting pretty Miss Bertha E. Weed, who makes money tilling a tough little farm in the town of North Canton. Miss Weed superintends all the operations on her place, is up with the sun every day, raises stock, sells milk and butter and has a big yard full of some of the best fowls in the state. What is still more wonderful, she has learned how to make money in the risky business of raising spring chickens for market. She makes a small fortune yearly selling eggs. Some of them are 'extraordinarily large. She presented a couple of them to the editor of the Hartford Courant this week. They weighed half a pound apiece, and are the biggest hens' eggs reported in the state this season.—New York Sun.

Capons.

It there were more small sized but well fattened capons sent to the market people would buy them. Not every one cares to buy a bird of ten or twelve pounds weight. And it is said that the few capons that are raised in New England are usually smaller than the Philadelphia capons, being more frequently made from the smaller breeds. After they are caponized, it costs no more to grow or fatten than any other fowl, but they sell at higher prices, because the market is not well supplied with them.—American Cultivator.

Miles' Nerve and Liver Pill

Action on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation, unequalled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest. Fifty doses 25 cents. Sample at A. R. Penny's.

$500 REWARD.

We will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Convulsions we can not cure with Water Vegetable Liver Pills, when the directions are strictly complied with. They are purely vegetable and never fail to give satisfaction. Sugar coated. Large boxes, containing 30 pills, 25c. Box of 100 counterfeits and imitations. The genuine manufactured only by The John C. West Co., Chicago, Ill. For sale by A. R. Penny.

JESSE THOMPSON,
In Commercial Hotel.

THE RILEY HOUSE.
F. B. RILEY, Proprietor,
London, . . . Kentucky

SAM.
I will make the present season at my place on the Danville pike with the above Shorthorn bull at $5 for the season. Sam has proven himself to be a good breeder and the public's attention is called to him.

N. & W. Norfolk & Western R.R.
Schedule May 22, 1892.

LEAVE NORTON DAILY
10:30 a.m. for Graham, Bluefield and intermediate stations.

Tut's Tiny Pills.
are very small, yet possess all the virtues of the larger Pills which have been so popular for thirty years. Their size and sugar-coating command them for the use of children and persons of delicate constitutions.

Sick Headache
they are invaluable as they cause the food to assimilate, nourish the body and pass off naturally without nausea or griping. Both sides of Tut's Pills are sold by all druggists. Dose small. Price, 25c. Office, 30 Park Place, N. Y.

DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVE.
Cures Brain Trouble, Nervous Prostration, Headache, Dizziness, Morbid Fears, Hot Flashes, Nervous Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Confusion, Hysteria, Fits, St. Vitus Dance, Ophthalmia, Drunkenness, etc., are cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve. It does not contain any opiates. Trial bottle and fine books FREE at druggists. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Indiana.

TRIAL BOTTLE FREE.
For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford.

J. H. BAUGHMAN,
FIRE AND STORM
INSURANCE AGENT

Hartford, of Hartford, Conn.,
Manchester, of Manchester, Eng.,
Pennsylvania Fire, Philadelphia,
Ins. Co. of North America.

All of which are first-class Companies. I would be pleased to wait on my friends in this line. Policies promptly issued. Will insure against fire, lightning and lightning. Lightning clauses attached without additional charge. Office at First National Bank, Stanford.

25c.
The Weekly
Louisville
Commercial

Will be sent to any address from now until January 1st, 1893, for twenty-five cents. Campaign year is at hand; you must keep posted, and the way to do so is to read THE COMMERCIAL. It is the only true exponent of protection and sound currency in the South.

Send for a Sample Copy.
And examine it carefully. You will be sure to subscribe. Address all letters and make all checks and post-office orders payable to Louisville Press Co.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

REMINGTON
—STANDARD—
Typewriter

BEST WORK
—BY—
THE SIMPLEST MEANS
—IN—
THE SHORTEST TIME
—THE—
Most Satisfactory and the Most Durable.

A complete stock of best quality Ribbons, Legal and Letter Paper, Oil, Mass. Covers, etc. Send for descriptive pamphlet to

G. M. ALLISON & CO.,
445 West Main Street,
Louisville, Ky.

Go to Earp's Art Gallery
To have your photographs taken. He keeps up with all the latest improvements, and will give you great satisfaction. A. J. EARP, Stanford.

Knoxville, Cumberland Gap & Louisville R.R.
Double Daily Schedule, In Effect May 8, 1892.

SOUTH BOUND.

Live, Louisville	8:30 a.m.
" " " " "	12:25 p.m.
Arr. Middleboro	7:18 a.m.
Arr. Cumberland Gap	5:30 a.m.
" " " " "	5:45 a.m.
" " " " "	6:10 a.m.
Arr. Knoxville	3:31 p.m.
" " " " "	3:45 p.m.
" " " " "	4:10 p.m.
" " " " "	4:30 p.m.
" " " " "	4:45 p.m.
" " " " "	5:00 p.m.
" " " " "	5:15 p.m.
" " " " "	5:30 p.m.
" " " " "	5:45 p.m.
" " " " "	6:00 p.m.
" " " " "	6:15 p.m.
" " " " "	6:30 p.m.
" " " " "	6:45 p.m.
" " " " "	7:00 p.m.
" " " " "	7:15 p.m.
" " " " "	7:30 p.m.
" " " " "	7:45 p.m.
" " " " "	8:00 p.m.
" " " " "	8:15 p.m.
" " " " "	8:30 p.m.
" " " " "	8:45 p.m.
" " " " "	9:00 p.m.
" " " " "	9:15 p.m.
" " " " "	9:30 p.m.
" " " " "	9:45 p.m.
" " " " "	10:00 p.m.
" " " " "	10:15 p.m.
" " " " "	10:30 p.m.
" " " " "	10:45 p.m.
" " " " "	11:00 p.m.
" " " " "	11:15 p.m.
" " " " "	11:30 p.m.
" " " " "	11:45 p.m.
" " " " "	12:00 a.m.
" " " " "	12:15 a.m.
" " " " "	12:30 a.m.
" " " " "	12:45 a.m.
" " " " "	1:00 a.m.
" " " " "	1:15 a.m.
" " " " "	1:30 a.m.
" " " " "	1:45 a.m.
" " " " "	2:00 a.m.
" " " " "	2:15 a.m.
" " " " "	2:30 a.m.
" " " " "	2:45 a.m.
" " " " "	3:00 a.m.
" " " " "	3:15 a.m.
" " " " "	3:30 a.m.
" " " " "	3:45 a.m.
" " " " "	4:00 a.m.
" " " " "	4:15 a.m.
" " " " "	4:30 a.m.
" " " " "	4:45 a.m.
" " " " "	5:00 a.m.
" " " " "	5:15 a.m.
" " " " "	5:30 a.m.
" " " " "	5:45 a.m.
" " " " "	6:00 a.m.
" " " " "	6:15 a.m.
" " " " "	6:30 a.m.
" " " " "	6:45 a.m.
" " " " "	7:00 a.m.
" " " " "	7:15 a.m.
" " " " "	7:30 a.m.
" " " " "	7:45 a.m.
" " " " "	8:00 a.m.
" " " " "	8:15 a.m.
" " " " "	8:30 a.m.
" " " " "	8:45 a.m.
" " " " "	9:00 a.m.
" " " " "	9:15 a.m.
" " " " "	9:30 a.m.
" " " " "	9:45 a.m.
" " " " "	10:00 a.m.
" " " " "	10:15 a.m.
" " " " "	10:30 a.m.
" " " " "	10:45 a.m.
" " " " "	11:00 a.m.
" " " " "	11:15 a.m.
" " " " "	11:30 a.m.
" " " " "	11:45 a.m.
" " " " "	12:00 p.m.
" " " " "	12:15 p.m.
" " " " "	12:30 p.m.
" " " " "	12:45 p.m.
" " " " "	1:00 p.m.
" " " " "	1:15 p.m.
" " " " "	1:30 p.m.
" " " " "	1:45 p.m.
" " " " "	2:00 p.m.
" " " " "	2:15 p.m.
" " " " "	2:30 p.m.
" " " " "	2:45 p.m.
" " " " "	3:00 p.m.
" " " " "	3:15 p.m.
" " " " "	3:30 p.m.
" " " " "	3:45 p.m.
" " " " "	4:00 p.m.
" " " " "	4:15 p.m.
" " " " "	4:30 p.m.
" " " " "	4:45 p.m.
" " " " "	5:00 p.m.
" " " " "	5:15 p.m.
" " " " "	5:30 p.m.
" " " " "	5:45 p.m.
" " " " "	6:00 p.m.
" " " " "	6:15 p.m.
" " " " "	6:30 p.m.
" " " " "	6:45 p.m.
" " " " "	7:00 p.m.
" " " " "	7:15 p.m.
" " " " "	7:30 p.m.
" " " " "	7:45 p.m.
" " " " "	8:00 p.m.
" " " " "	8:15 p.m.
" " " " "	8:30 p.m.
" " " " "	8:45 p.m.
" " " " "	9:00 p.m.
" " " " "	9:15 p.m.
" " " " "	9:30 p.m.
" " " " "	9:45 p.m.
" " " " "	10:00 p.m.
" " " " "	10:15 p.m.
" " " " "	10:30 p.m.
" " " " "	10:45 p.m.
" " " " "	11:00 p.m.
" " " " "	11:15 p.m.
" " " " "	11:30 p.m.
" " " " "	11:45 p.m.
" " " " "	12:00 a.m.
" " " " "	12:15 a.m.
" " " " "	12:30 a.m.
" " " " "	12:45 a.m.
" " " " "	1:00 a.m.
" " " " "	1:15 a.m.
" " " " "	1:30 a.m.
" " " " "	1:45 a.m.
" " " " "	2:00 a.m.
" " " " "	2:15 a.m.
" " " " "	2:30 a.m.
" " " " "	2:45 a.m.
" " " " "	3:00 a.m.
" " " " "	3:15 a.m.
" " " " "	3:30 a.m.
" " " " "	3:45 a.m.
" " " " "	4:00 a.m.
" " " " "	4:15 a.m.
" " " " "	4:30 a.m.
" " " " "	4:45 a.m.
" " " " "	5:00 a.m.
" " " " "	5:15 a.m.
" " " " "	5:30 a.m.
" " " " "	5:45 a.m.
" " " " "	6:00 a.m.
" " " " "	6:15 a.m.
" " " " "	6:30 a.m.
" " " " "	6:45 a.m.
" " " " "	7:00 a.m.
" " " " "	7:15 a.m.

MEANS BUSINESS.

WALL PAPER and paints at W. B. McRoberts.

ENGRAVING beautifully and artistically done at A. R. Penny's.

Buy your books and school supplies of all kinds from A. R. Penny.

HAVE your watch, clock and jewelry repaired at A. R. Penny's. All work warranted.

REMEMBER that all silverware, watches, rings, etc., bought at A. R. Penny's will be engraved free of charge.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. J. A. MUND is visiting near St. Mary's.

Geo. P. BORTON, of Pittsburg, is at his father's.

Miss LILLIE FIGG, of Danville, is the guest of Miss Ella May Saunders.

Col. R. P. JACOBS and Mr. L. S. Logan, of Danville, were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. J. S. MAY of Somerset spent a few days with her parents here this week.

HARVEY HIRM is spending a few days at Danville with his sister, Mrs. J. F. Walton.

Mrs. Col. J. M. BRAZLEY has taken charge of the Tribble House at Junction City.

Capt. TOM HURLEY went to Louisville Wednesday to get a few pointers on base ball.

Miss ELLA MAY GRAHAM, of Louisville, is the guest of Miss Ella May Saunders.

Mrs. R. W. HOCKER, of Kansas City, arrived yesterday and is the guest of Mr. J. S. Hocker.

Messrs. J. F. and L. P. LARK, engineers on the L. & N., are visiting friends here.

Miss MAUD DUNN, of Danville, came up Tuesday to attend the Fox-Baughman marriage.

Mrs. J. B. WARREN left Wednesday for Cleveland, Ohio, to visit her son, Dr. J. W. Dawson.

WILL WARREN went to Franklin yesterday to attend the party given by Miss Ella McElwain.

NATH McKENNEN, who has been attending Central University, is at home for the vacation.

MR. T. C. FOX, of the Danville Democrat, attended the marriage of his relative Wednesday night.

ED C. TURNER, of Louisville, is spending a few days with his brother, the clever Jack Turner.

Prof. J. M. BROOKS, of Kingsville, has secured the school at Walnut Flat and will open on or before July 15th.

JUDITH M. PHILLIPS, of Monticello, passed through Tuesday to visit his sister, Mrs. Milton Elliott, at Kirkville.

Mr. J. A. CRAFT took his mother to Louisville Tuesday to have her eyes treated. She is almost entirely blind.

Mrs. WILLIAM LUCKY accompanied her son, Mr. S. E. Lackey to his home at Gallatin, Tenn., and is now the guest of his family.

MR. WILL CHAIR, representing a New York clothing house, is here showing his samples and selling goods. He carries 14 trucks.

Miss FOX PENNINGTON returned yesterday to her home at Middleboro, after a very pleasant visit to her friends, Misses Annie and Mary Alcorn.

Miss ELLIE SHRYVE, of Crab Orchard, Lena Wells, of Junction City, and Huber Turner, of Louisville, were here to see the base ball Tuesday evening.

Miss BETTIE PARSONS has returned from Lebanon, where she has been teaching. She is accompanied by little Miss Carrie Showers, of that place.

Misses ALICE MOORE, Allie Fish, Lottie Dillion, Ora Wilmore and some other of Crab Orchard's prettiest girls and best dancers, will spend a part of July at Green Briar Springs.

Mrs. DUNDY PORTWOOD, of Fort Worth, Texas, is the guest of her brother, Hon. W. H. Miller. Her sister, Mrs. Malinda Hayden, who has been visiting her, accompanied her, and is also at Mr. Miller's.

Miss ANNE BALLOV, of the faculty of the Clifton Forge, Va., Female Seminary and Miss Flora Ballou, a pupil, have returned home. Miss Flora won a valuable prize for being the best essayist.

Mr. WILL SHANKS, one of the most popular young men who attended Centre College here last season, returned to his home at Stanford Saturday. He will send the Advocate an occasional news letter during his vacation and they will add another good feature to the paper.—Advocate.

Those excellent teachers, Misses Louis Tipton and Gertrude Howard, whose services in the faculty of Stanford Female College are highly appreciated, left Tuesday for their respective homes, Dyersburg, Tenn., and Ghent, Ky. It will make their many friends glad to know that they will return in the fall for by their gentle manners they have endeared themselves to all. Miss Nellie Tipton, a pretty pupil, returned with her sister and a number of our young men went as far as they could on the train with the party.

CITY AND VICINITY.

FRUIT JARS at McKinney Bros.

FRUIT JARS at J. F. Hocker's, Turnersville.

FRUIT JARS at J. B. Foster's.

FRUIT JARS at Farris & Hardin's.

BINDER Twine and machine oil at J. B. Foster's.

SHOO FLV! Wire doors and windows made to order by A. C. Alford.

BOARDERS WANTED.—Good fare, pleasant rooms at the McRoberts house. Mrs. Rannie Parks.

All kinds of rough lumber for sale at the New Lumber Yard near the depot. J. T. Blankenship.

FRUIT JARS, jelly glasses, tops, gums, sealing wax and preserving kettles at Farris & Hardin's.

My fine soda water apparatus is now in operation. Call and get a glass of the best you ever tasted. A. R. Penny.

HOLMAN & McCLURE will run the stage line between Crab Orchard Springs and the depot. They will also have a livery stable at the Springs.

It is sadly told that Col. W. O. Bradley was robbed of a $500 diamond pin at Minneapolis, in addition to being robbed of the chance to speak in behalf of Harrison, by McKinley.

Miss ELLA McELWAIN, of Franklin, entertains to-night in honor of her friends, Misses Maggie Dawley, of this place, and Sue Paine, of Elizabethtown. Several of our boys will attend.

We have had several days of very warm weather, but yesterday was the eclipsing one, the thermometer registering 130° in the sun and 95° in the shade. The original service prospects for to-day thunder storms with slightly cooler weather.

The Danville Advocate says that A. Tribble, formerly of the Tribble House, Junction City, took charge of the Gillespie-Housen Danville, yesterday, and that H. B. Farris, who has been clerk there, has taken a similar position at the Clemens House.

THIEVES again entered Mr. J. H. Hilton's store at Bowland on Wednesday night. The entrance was effected by boring the lock off of the door and about $100 worth of goods were stolen. Mr. Hilton is determined to find out the guilty party and will spare neither time nor money in bringing him to justice.

LOUISVILLE, Lexington, Crab Orchard, Bowling Green, Paducah, Williams-town, Mayaville, Georgetown and several other Kentucky towns all have institutes for the cure of drunkenness and a company has just been organized at Owensboro to begin the renovation of the toppers in that neighborhood. As Crab Orchard is 10 or more miles distant would not Stanford be a good place for one?

Those who had anticipated seeing a good game of base ball here Tuesday evening were sorely disappointed. The Interior Journals, under Manager Hurley had been equipped for a good light and it looked as if they would certainly break their record so far this season by winning a game of ball. But alas! the Harrodsburgs, with whom they were to play, failed to put in an appearance and the good crowd of spectators saw no game at all, save a three inning game by a picked up nine, which was merely a little practice for the 1 J's. Our boys, together with the spectators and Manager Hurley, wondered why the Harrodsburgs did not come, but finally the schedule was looked at and it was seen that we were to play on their grounds and it was then discovered that base ball teams are not managed like some of the well-known institutions that are known to mankind. The 1 J's will of course have to pay the forfeit of $25 and it no doubt will prove a lesson to them in the future. The Harrodsburgs are booked for here to-day, when a good game may be expected. Our nameakes are in good trim now and it's dollars to doughnuts they will not prove so soft a snap as they have done so far.

A FAIR.—From the present outlook Stanford is dead certain to have a fair. Some 60 shares have been gotten up by Mr. P. W. Green and a meeting was held at the court-house, Wednesday afternoon, to consider the best action to take in the matter. Hustonville has decided not to have one and it is no reason why old Lincoln—one of the best counties in the State—should not have one somewhere in her borders. At the meeting Judge W. E. Varnon was selected chairman and E. C. Walton secretary. It was decided that 100 shares would be sold at $10 each and that the date would be Wednesday and Thursday, July 13 and 14—the dates Hustonville was to have had. The chairman appointed J. P. Crow, P. W. Green and W. W. Hays to solicit stock and afterwards appointed P. W. Green, Joel T. Embury and S. M. Owens a committee to see to the securing of grounds, the cost of grand stand, etc. As yet no place has been decided on to hold the exhibition, but at the meeting Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock the committee will make its reports as to the location of the proposed fair grounds and we believe we will be able to stand alongside the rest of the counties with a two-days fair. This year there will be no touts, but an excellent display of stock and cattle is promised and it is more than likely by next year we will have a first class place to test the ability of the race horses.

FRUIT JARS and jelly glasses at A. A. Warren's.

FRUIT JARS at Farris & Hardin's.

FRUIT JARS for sale on reasonable terms. Inquire of Miss Annie Wray.

HARRODSBURG vs. Interior Journals at Rochester Park this evening.

The finest shoe polish ever brought to Stanford at T. J. Hatcher's shop.

I HAVE several Wombs self dump hay rakes for sale cheap. Joe Severance, Jr.

A BRAKENAN named Howell, was badly lashed between cars at Corbin Wednesday.

We now have a stock of woven wire and slat fence made of oak pickets. Sine & Menefee.

I AM agent for the Wm. Deering Co's twine, the best in the market. J. H. Baughman.

A GOOD, second hand, 12-horse-power portable engine for sale at a bargain. See Geo. H. Wearen.

BORN to the wife of Mr. L. T. Smith, on Tuesday night, a 10-pound girl. This is the first in 13 years.

All the railroads have tied one fare for the round trip to Chicago for the convention next week.

A GRAND stand is being erected at the base ball grounds and will be ready for the game this afternoon.

I HAVE ice at Elkin's shop during the day and will be present to wait on my customers. James P. Bush.

The session of the Presbyterian church requests a full attendance of the members at the morning service Sunday next.

The colored nine played the Lancasters here Wednesday and defeated them by a score of 28 to 6. Our colored friends can play ball, even if the 1 J's are inefficient in that line.

HARRODSBURG's water works have commenced operations and the people are jubilating. The stand pipe has a capacity of 180,000 gallons. Stanford's going to beat that supply all hollow by the direct pressure system.

NEWELL ELMORE was yesterday adjudged insane by a jury in Judge Varnon's court and he was ordered to be taken to the asylum at Lexington. Mr. M. D. Elmore was appointed to take charge of his business.

The building for the electric plant is progressing nicely and is rapidly nearing completion. The gallery for the water is also being rapidly dug and it looks like by July 15 we will be enjoying those luxuries that the larger cities do.

Is going through the penitentiary the other day Hon. D. B. Edmiston found a man who he was sure was Gene Higgins, sent up from this county and long since reported dead. On examination of the books it was found that Higgins, on getting out at Edenville, got caught in the act of house breaking and was sent up for three years under the name of Jesse Walker.

The Queen & Crescent route will sell tickets at greatly reduced rates to Niagara Falls and return for their train which will arrive in Cincinnati on June 22d, in time to make connection with special train on the C. C. & St. L. railway, leaving at 1:30 p. m. For rates, sleeping car space, etc., call on any ticket agent or address D. G. Edwards, G. P. A., Cincinnati.

The opening ball at Linnietta Springs, Tuesday evening, proved a most delightful occasion. Capt. Thomas Richards had left nothing undone to make it enjoyable and the young folks who attended from here are profuse in their praise of the elegant hop and supper and the reception given them. The surroundings of Linnietta Springs probably excel any in the State and as a lover's retreat it is a model indeed. The scenery around is beyond the description of the pen and the hotel and fare, using a slang expression, are "away out of sight." The hop, at which the beauty and chivalry of the surrounding country were present, was pleasant in every particular. The best of order was preserved and nothing was done to mar the enjoyment. Those who attended from here were: Misses Helen Santley, Lottie Dillion, Mary Daviss Dudderar, Ora Wilmore and Huber Turner and Messrs. H. T. Mullins, Chas. C. Carson, John Smiley, Tom and Gabe Lackey, Jim Reid, W. A. Tribble, E. H. and Joe Jones, Jack Turner and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Keller.

COLLEGE NOTES.—Miss Bodinger is spending the vacation at her home at Erlanger. She will accept a position at Boulton, Texas, next year, or accompany her invalid mother to California, where she has a brother residing. Miss Kirtley is at her home in Ludlow. Both of these ladies made many friends in Stanford and leave the college highly commended for their deportment and efficiency by the management.

Miss Tipton is with her mother at Dyersburg, Tenn., but will return in September to take the place in the College which she has so admirably filled for the last two years as teacher of mathematics and Latin. Miss Tipton has done splendid work at the College. To her thorough training at the Peabody Normal College, she has added two years of hard work, which has greatly increased her efficiency as a teacher.

Miss Howard has returned to her home in Ghent, but will spend much of her vacation, as usual, at the Cincinnati Conservatory. The music class at the College is now more than four times as large as it was when Miss Howard took charge two years ago. She is a hard worker and is thoroughly imbued with progressive ideas in music. Her pupils have shown the public that they can play classic music and play it well. She will return to the College in September. Prof. Hubbard expects to add another fine piano to his already splendid equipment next year.

Miss Summers, of Abingdon, Va., will take charge of the art, elocution and penmanship in September. This young lady was graduated at the Stonewall Jackson Institute two years ago, but at once entered upon a special course of study at the Augusta Female Seminary at Staunton. She has been thoroughly instructed in the methods pursued in the New York School of Design and is well equipped as an educationist. She has already made a fine reputation about Staunton as a writer, both of prose and of poetry. Prof. Hubbard thinks that Miss Summers will be a splendid acquisition to his faculty.

The primary department will be in charge of Miss Worley, a teacher of experience, who is now taking a course at the Peabody Normal College. She has been paying special attention to the work done in the Winthrop School of Methods and will come to Stanford highly commended by the faculty of the Peabody Normal.

Special attention will be given to sight singing and free-hand drawing in this department. The facilities for little girls will be absolutely unexcelled in Kentucky.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

At Baltimore a couple was married in a cemetery, the bride standing on the grave of her mother and the groom on her father's grave.

Mr. W. M. Blain, formerly of Lincoln, and Mrs. E. J. Freeman went to Jellico last Wednesday evening and were quietly married by Squire Early. They were accompanied on the trip by Dr. J. D. Atkins and Mrs. J. Marion Sullivan. They returned the same night and spent most of Thursday receiving the congratulations of their many friends. May they live long and happily and enjoy all the blessings, big and little, that come to less the married estate.—Williamsburg Times.

A beautiful wedding indeed was that performed at the Christian church Wednesday evening, when Mr. Montie Fox and Miss Annie Baughman were joined in wedlock's holy bond. The church had been beautifully decorated under the supervision of Mrs. Pernelia Brown and the rostrum was a scene lovely beyond the description of this lowly pen. Flowers in profusion filled every available space and their sweet odor was enjoyed by the large crowd present. The participants in the important occasion were a little late in arriving and it was 9:25 before the eager spectators laid eyes on the happy pair. The bridal couple was preceded by Rev. W. E. Ellis and little Misses Dora and Annie Baughman and were followed by the following attendants: Miss Edith Adams, Will Baughman; Miss Mattie Owsley, George Spillman; Miss Nancy Baughman, Mr. Cummings; Miss Maude Dunn, Mr. Roberts; Miss Lizzie Dunn, Joe Severance; Miss Louise Bailey, George Woods; and the ushers, J. H. Baughman and Will Dunn. The bride was beautifully attired in white silk, en train, with bridal veil, and was a true type of the Kentucky woman, whose beauty is known far and near. The present Mrs. Fox was a most popular young lady and her amiability drew to her friends by the score. With accomplishments and all of the acquirements necessary to happiness, there is no reason why she will not make a help meet in every sense of the word and one that her husband will have every reason to feel proud of. The groom is a young man of rare business tact and of most exemplary habits. At present he is in the livery business at Danville, but has for years been an extensive dealer in stock of all kinds. After the wedding the newly made couple and a few of their immediate friends and relatives repaired to the bride's mother's, Mrs. Annie Baughman, where they enjoyed a delightful supper, prepared by Mrs. Baughman's skilled hands. After spending a few days with relatives here, Mr. and Mrs. Fox will go to Danville to reside. The INTERIOR JOURNAL wishes them both a long life of all happiness this world can afford and that each day the love which now exists shall grow greater and greater.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

A BROWN MARE PONY, about 1½ hands high, mane and tail, roached, a small lump on back, letter "K" branded on left jaw; also a brand on left hip. Any one giving information leading to her recovery will receive a liberal reward. W. J. ROMANS, Lancaster, Ky.

Notice to Creditors.

All persons having claims against the estate of S. W. Givens, dec'd., are requested to present them to us by the 15th of August next. S. W. GIVENS, C. C. GIVENS, G. L. SURBER.

HOT ! HOTTER ! HOTTEST !

AND STILL IT GROWS HOTTER !

Unless you come to THE NEW CASH STORE and buy some of those Summer Goods made to Keep Everybody Cool.

Because they are so cheap. Our $5, $8 and $10 suits are simply unsurpassed and unless you come soon you will miss great Bargains.

OUR NEGLIGE & WHITE SHIRTS,

Collars, cuffs and summer ties must be seen to be appreciated. We have too many and have made

Prices That are Sure to Move Them.

We have also made prices on Lace Curtains to move them. Come and see for yourself. Our Shoe Stock in Ladies and Gent's contains

SOME : EXCELLENT ; BARCAINS

Our $1 Kid Shoe in broken sizes will catch anybody they will fit. Our Dress Goods Stock must be reduced. Those French Gingham at 10c, 12c, 15c and 25c are going rapidly and our Crepons, Mulhouse Tissues, Cheverons, Ponges, Printed Indias, Lace Henrlettas, must go this hot weather. Come while you can get Choice.

JOHN S. HUGHES.

GO TO

A. A. Warren's "Model Grocery"

FOR

FRUIT JARS, JELLY GLASSES, TOPS AND GUMS, SEALING WAX, &C.

H. C. RUPLEY,

Merchant Tailor,

Is Receiving His

Spring & Summer Goods

Goods Warranted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give me call.

FARRIS & HARDIN,

.....Dealers In.....

Staple & Fancy Groceries

Hard-, Queen-, Tin- and Glassware.

Just Received a Beautiful Line Chamber Sets and Lamps.

SEASONABLE : GOODS

.....AT.....

B.K. & W. H. Wearen's.

Garden Tools, Rakes, Hoes, Spades, Shovels,

Traces, Collars, Pads, Hames, Leonard Refrigerators, White Mountain Freezers, Water Coolers, Etc.

Sheep Dip

Cures Scab and Itch, Kills Ticks and Lice,

Makes Your Sheep Healthier

And the wool better. Dip your Sheep just after shearing.

Two and a half gallons of Dip to 100 gallons of water will dip 150 Sheep.

McKINNEY BROS.

Do You Need a Wagon ?

CALL AT J. B. FOSTER'S

And examine the Studebaker. Car-load just received.

